IACUC related trainings have been migrated to the CITI system. "Use of Laboratory Animals" has been replaced by "Small" or "Large Animal" trainings.

In order to complete modules on CITI, please log in here:

Citi.pitt.edu

Log in using your Pitt credentials

Select "View Courses" beside the blue box that says University of Pittsburgh

The modules do not automatically populate- your "Active " or "Courses Ready to Begin" may be empty.

Scroll to the bottom of page to and select "Add A Course"

Go through the next 2 pages, selecting the courses relevant to your work, or given to you to complete.

Once you complete those checks, the courses will appear on the "Courses Ready to Begin" on your home page.

Click on each to complete.
